IT'S JUST ABOUT TIME

Both dark horses and night-mares will soon be in order. The annual fairs over which should be which is about here. Within a short time we must trouble our minds about getting some new student body officers. The old ones have lived their day and will pass on and become a page in history. The new officers must be found, elected and harnessed as well as cloaked with all the glamour and glory that goes with election.

It might be well to begin separating the wheat from the chaff and making ready to circulate petitions. Who will be a good man for president? Who can edit The 'Y' News and the Banyan? Who will be able to handle all the other student body officers?

Look the prospects over now and start the campaign rolling.

GUESS WHICH

Which door shall we try? Yes, it is getting to be quite a guessing game, and it is all about the way the doors at the west end of the College building are locked and unlocked according to some schedule or figure of some reason we are still unable to figure out.

A PLACE TO PUT HONOR

President Knight mentioned, in his talk last Wednesday, a man who refused to pay tithing and instead gave the money to a man he thought would need it. In connection with this and his thought, it might be added that if the person gives the money directly to the poor, then he gets the gratitude for the gift and the receiver loves him for it. If it is given through the church, the church receives the gratitude and is loved for it. It is far better to love a church and feel an obligation there than to love an individual or to feel obligated to him.

MUSIC COMMENDABLE

Few groups of people in the world have access to music such as we have in programs in our assembly. Particularly we commend the large group singing which was a part of the program Wednesday. Only once in a while do we hear groups of one hundred and fifty as two hundred voices gathered together and able to sing over such fine numbers as we are accustomed to hearing.

ONLY A FEW OUT OF STEP

With just a little care some of the annoying features which spoil our devotional sometimes, can be eliminated. Only occasionally these things become noticeable, but they should never reach that state. Wednesday we noticed several students leave within a few seconds after the speaker began. Eighty-five members came in late and walked themselves into the center of attention and to their seats on the stand. Another group of students which usually congregates in the northwest corner of the hall, was flamboyant and conspicuous with unnecessary conversation.

Outside of a few little disturbances of this nature we can compliment ourselves on having a fine spirit of respect and order in our devotions.

AFTER THESE DANCES

For the information of the students on the campus, the reason for cancelling the regular bi-weekly dances, for at least the next two scheduled nights, I have this to offer: First of all it is to be understood that no money is procured from the activity fee which will run the dances. They are supposed to be self-sustaining and separate and distinct from other activities. Each dance has to pay for itself, for no method is at hand for applying the deficit.

The average cost of each bi-weekly dance is about $75.00 to $80.00. That price consists of: $35.00 for music, $16.00 for the door-keeper, floor manager, and check room labor; $10.00 for decorations, and about $12.00 for programs. That finances the cost.

These dances have been almost totally financed by the sale of programs—what was lacking being made up by profits on matinee dances. When the students have supported the socials we have made out O. K. But these last two dances developed a deficit—the one on March 2, about $400.00 and the one on March 16, about $200.00 which makes a total deficit of over $100.00. That is what the student body officers have to face. We can accept the cancellation of at least the next two dances the best remedy since it will avoid the danger of a greater debt, and the possibility of offsetting what now exists from the receipts of the matinee dances.

Does anyone know of a better method of meeting the deficit? We would like your suggestions.

If the students would support our dances as they have done until these last two, all would be well—but our problem is "will you do it?" Prospects for support do not look so good from our viewpoint. Anyone interested is invited to talk it over with us at any time.

ONE OF BIGGEST MUSICAL COMEDY SHOWS COMING TO THE PARAMOUNT

"Hit the Deck" will soon be the attraction of the players of Provo for present Youmans' musical comedy sensation, "Hit the Deck," which made this famous song known to the world is to be presented at the Paramount Theatre on Friday evening, March 30th, at 8:20 p. m.

With a musical score by Youmans, who was also the composer of "Ho, Ho, Ho, Ho," it would seem a foregone conclusion that there are surely some entrancing songs in "Hit the Deck." The outstanding ones appear to be "Harbor of My Heart," "Nothing Could Be Sweeter," and "Somewhere in Heaven."

Audience from the excellence of its music, "Hit the Deck" is unusual in having a constant plot, for it has been taken bodily from the David Belasco-Trauers Story stage triumph "Shore Leave."

According to the enthusiastic praise of the press in other cities "Hit the Deck" can truly be said to have more than redeemed all the promises made for it in the advance advertising campaign.

U. of U. Issues Spring Football Call; 150 Out

Coach H. J. Armstrong issued the call for spring football at the University of Utah this week with about 50 boys having out. Captain Albert C. Green, veteran tackle, leads the crimson this year. There will be about three weeks of work preparatory to the fall workouts for the 1929 campaign.

NEW STADIUM WILL HAVE LARGE SEATING CAPACITY

The stadium work proper has been progressing rapidly during the past three weeks because of the work by the students constituting the design at the stadium site. All the deep drains are in and the field is pretty well graded. The construction of the big siphon will be completed as soon as the weather conditions are favorable. The thirty-six inch pipe is to be laid soon, as the main are here. The men are awaiting orders.

The completion of the track and the planting of grass is to be made before the end of the school year. The west side of the track is limited except for the leveling and rolling of the cinders. It will be at least one month before the east side will be ready for the cinders inasmuch as the track is not yet filled.

The construction of the seats is to be made during the summer; the work of the men and the work of wood.

A seating capacity of 15,000 will be possible when the whole building and the present stands of the school will call for 5,000. The seats will be arranged in the tiers of 1700 each. A cement wall will run along the top and the bottom.

The possibility of dressing rooms will be determined by the funds raised during the coming summer as though no definite plans have yet been made.

UNIT COUNCIL MAKES TRACK MEET PAIRINGS

Inter Social Unit Council plans will be taken on the Ladies' Gymnasium steps at 11:30 instead of 12:30.

The Inter Social Unit Council met yesterday afternoon and decided that each women's unit would appoint a man's unit in the coming inter-unit track meet. They drew for the unit which would be paired and the following is the result: 2-1, 4-3, 6-23, 8-17, 10-13, 12-26, 14-11, 16-25, 18-11, 20-25, 22-14, 24-27, 26-21, 28-2 and 30-9.

Refreshments were served and a number of songs and dances with guitar accompaniment by Harold G. Clark, Edith Blackburn and Stu Nelson, and a reading by Lucille Tetlow. Pines of $1.00 were paid by four units not having a representative at the last meeting.

Inquiry has come to the university in regard to efficient young men for military work. It seems that a number of fellows will not get next year into this field of activity.

Always a good time at the P. H. S. Alumni Dance. Next one will be at the high school gym.

COMEDY NEWS

BEGINNING SUNDAY

"The Private Life of Helen of Troy"

by John Erskine

Despite unfavorable playing conditions of wind and rain, first round matches of the spring tennis tournament have been fairly well played off with the development of several hot contests among the non-seeded players.

Second round matches will see Grace Gilchrist who drew a bye in the first round meet Chad Snow who also drew a bye. The contest is expected to come through a easily. Shortly before the match, B. Clark (4-6-2 for the night) met Clarence Johns who won from Durrant last year, 6-3-6-1.

Wesley Foster Mackay (6-3-6-1) met Wes Foster Mackay (6-3-6-1) in the first round and will clash with Perkins who won from Jenkins in a hectic three set affair, 7-5-6-6-1.

After dropping an easy first set to B. Robinson, B. Clark pulled out to win a close contest to annex the match 2-6-6-4-6-1.

He will meet the winner of the Vinton and M. Moody Fry in the second round. Elton Britten experienced difficulty in disposing of W. Wehner when his opponent came through with a strong attack in the first set to win 6-3-6-1 and a powerful challenge.

After a long and hard battle, Britten set all, strenuous however enabled him to score a victory. He will undoubtedly meet little opposition in the next round in meeting the winner of the Wickham's Drom match.

The decisive Bud Butte experienced a tough fight with P. Robinson in the first verse of the first set but he was able to win 6-3-6-1.

His opponent's rebellious spirit to annex it at 6-3. The winner of the Croft-B. Snow will challenge him in the tournament in the second round. M. Gilchrist won from A. Bick on default and will play Mads who reached the second round by a bye route.

The only player to reach the third round is R. Walker who gained that position in defeating Howell Brown (6-3-6-1). He will meet the winner of the Hunt-M. Gilchrist match.

Few sports have featured the play so far although the fact that the seeded players have not swung into serious action yet. However this may be responsible for some interesting battles which are doctored for the quarter and semi-finals round of play.

Miss Daisy Jean, 'celist, harpist, and soprano will appear here on the Arts Center, Wednesday, April 4. Miss Jean, although French by birth, is a native of this city and is a member of the Belgian National Conservatory of Music. She was graduated from there with high honors at the age of seventeen.

Miss Jean is the only musical artist now before the public who presents so varied a program without assistance. She accompanies herself on the harp.

Whenever she is in Belgium, Miss Jean is the Queen's 'celist and appears regularly in concerts at court. Queen Elizabeth presented her, in behalf of the Belgian people, a rare and invaluable old cello of Italian make.

For the past few years Miss Jean has been giving a greater part of her time in the United States and Canada.

Ute Stadium Track Is Put In Good Shape

The new cinder track in the Ute stadium has undergone complete repair in the last three weeks, and is now one of the best tracks in the west. The track has a 225-yard straightaway with two running lanes. The oval is a full quarter mile. The first competition on the new cinder track will be held April 5 when the annual meet will be run. Twelve teams are entered in the annual event.

BANQUET WILL CONCLUDE BLOCK "Y" INITIATIONS

The final initiation for fifteen members of the Block "Y" Club will be held tonight, according to Lowell Hildahl, president of the club. During the past week, the "goats" of the club have been characterized by grotesque, silly tricks and black catenous frolics. They have also been forced to conduct a show abating night and a maintaining board for the benefit of the student body.

The initiation will be followed up by a formal banquet Saturday night, which will be open to all members of the club who wish to attend. The program for the banquet is as follows: String

The class series baseball race is proving very interesting and exciting. All the classes are now tied with one win and one loss chalked up against them. The Sophs defeated the Fresh in the first tilt by a default. The Juniors took the Juniors into camp in the second game by the score of 3 to 1. In the third game the Fresh came back strong and toppled the Seniors by the same score, 3 to 1. An upset occurred Monday when the Juniors trounced the Jovied Sophs 4 to 2. As yet, however, undecided, and made a tie of all the teams.

Friday's game will be postponed because of the storm but it will be played just as soon as the weather will permit. The Seniors and Sophs were slated to do battle. The last game of the series will be between the Juniors and Fresh. After for first place is inevitable as the championship game will be arranged after the schedule is completed.

Key songs by Catherine Eyring and Duabon Farridge, song by Le Grande Anderson and some special features. There will be a dance immediately after the banquet for all those present. The Block "Y" Club is composed of only those students who have letters in some inter-collegiate activity.

Your crowd will be at the big Alumni Prom from Dance at the Provo H. S. Gym, Tonight!
